Citizens of the City of Austin present and future owe a great debt of gratitude to Brock for all the trees he planted through PARD Forestry Planting for the Future. Brock was amazing-he was the go to guy for getting things done. If Brock couldn't do it, he knew who could. His dedication was only surpassed by his warm, wide smile and his great laugh. I was very sad to learn of his passing and my sincere condolences and prayers go to his family. Rest in peace and thank you, Brock.

Uncle Brack Jr, the first of the 12, you will be dearly missed. Whenever I pick up a cup of coffee, I'll think of you. I remember you telling a group of us a story about 2 of your siblings and in your words "those were the baddest babies I've ever seen" you laughed so hard which made us laugh, I'd give anything to see that smile and hear that boisterous laugh again. This seems unreal but God knows how to fill the void that now has a space in our hearts. Not ready to say goodbye but instead "see you on the other side". Rest in Paradise uncle, we love you bunches.

Deacon Green, he always had a welcoming smile, a hand shake with a Good morning Missionary. Then he would let me know we have some coffee ready. I'm going to truly miss his greetings on Sunday morning. Praying for the Green family!!! May God continue to give you strength and comfort during this time. The Guillory family 🌹
