Dav-O - from the moment I met you I knew you were extraordinary! You were funny, intelligent, interesting, and loud! You accepted everyone just the way they were! Always wanting the very best for your family and friends! I adore you! I miss you - especially those silly calls - "ah Kimbo-slice, I aint heard from you in a minute, you alright" You Rest my bro! Love lights the way!

My Brother Davey, you will truly be missed. I have enjoyed being a part of your family for the almost 27 years. You welcomed me. Messed with me and as Robin sould say bullied me. And I won't change a thing. Love the chicken foot games. The shots days. I will take care of your brother, don't worry about him. Love you my brother from another mother.

"Dave, Your friendship was a Blessing. You have been a friend thru grade school, high school, thru college and thru life. No more worries, stress, pain or problems just peace thru out eternity." I was bless when you said, "Jen I'm coming into town to visit (last year) and I want to lay eyes on you," I'm so glad we met up and laughed and joked about all the bid whist players whom played with every Thursday. I will always cherished the memories, the laughters, the protection, and the love....

Dave was such a fun person to be around. He had a dry sense of humor that kept me in stitches. His humor was as much fun as the delicious food he prepared.
A chapter completed,
A page turned,
A life well lived,
A rest well earned.
May you find peace in the knowledge that your loved one has completed but one chapter of the Book of Eternal Life.

As life seasons take a turn ,there's a lesson to be learned. Broken wings need time to mend before David learns to fly again. The Father has welcomed him home. His good and faithful servant. Please know he's resting in the Lords arms .
