On October 1, 1976, Bishop Johns was united in holy matrimony to Leticia Johns. They have six daughters: Felicia Mixon, Mary Johns, Jessica Johns, Melissa Johns, Erika Johns, and Jennifer Johns-Charles. This year they would have celebrated 43 years of marriage.

In 1976, Bishop was a faithful member of God's House Apostolic Church under the pastoralship of Elder Eugene Stewart of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Bishop Johns served at God's House Church from 1975 to 1980 and then moved to Laredo, Texas where he fellowshiped at Central Assembly of God under the pastoralship of Rev. Pat Robinson. He served there until the middle of 1984 and then moved to Austin, Texas. In 1984, Bishop Johns joined Grace Temple Apostolic Church where he was ordained as a minister and deacon and continued serving until 1987. Bishop Johns was called on a mission to help build churches. Bishop Johns then started a ministry in his home and recruited Dr. Craig High of Fort Worth, Texas to be Pastor of the ministry, which is called Greater Peace Christian Church. Bishop Johns served as a minister and a deacon and the church grew to be a great ministry which is still going on today. Bishop Johns was called to Lifeline Evangelistical Ministries under the leadership of Dr. Rebecca Washington-Berry, Chief Apostle/ Presiding Prelate Faith Ministries International Network of Churches, Inc. He served until the Lord called him to pioneer another ministry in 1994 until he retired, which is Greater New Life Christian Church. God has used this ministry to change lives. He was responsible for the singing career of his daughters, "Images of Christ," and their first CD, "You Can Make It." Bishop Johns also has founded two non-profit organizations which are called S.T.A.N.D., which was found ed in 1996 and also Koinonia, a Christian fellowship of churches where churches come together for authentic and true fellowship (which is the meaning of Koinonia in Greek “authentic fellowship”). God gave Bishop Johns a vision to bring people to true worship through education, proclamation, and dedication to the work of God. He was ordained as a Bishop on October 2002 under Faith Ministries International Network of Churches. He is listed in Faith Ministries International Network of Churches Incorporation bylaws as one of the First Bishops ordained in the global organization.
