The Mount Olive Baptist Church and community sadly lost a pillar on Friday, February 11, 2021, when David Leon Ockletree, affectionally known to many as “Deacon Paw Paw” and “Paw Paw” to his grandchildren, passed away at Seton Medical Center. David Leon Ockletree was born, as the third child on November 13, 1944, in Austin, Texas, to Annie Mae Howard Ockletree and David Ockletree. David was married for 19 years to Dorothy Jean Coleman Ockletree on June 11, 1966. From that union, they became parents of two daughters, Deborah and Donna Ockletree. After the passing of his wife, David reared his daughters in a home sheltered with love. David Leon Ockletree attended Albert Sidney Johnston High School, a comprehensive, coeducational high school in the Austin Independent School District. Then, he pursued higher education by attending Durham Business College in Austin, Texas.

David’s employment journey started at Scarbrough’s Department Store where he was employed as a salesman in downtown Austin. From there, he became the Supervisor of Mail Services at the Texas State Capitol. David’s leadership and stewardship, in that position, were evident by his ability to take the best care possible of people and fulfilling responsibilities under his influence. Later, he worked and served in the Attorney General’s Office. David retired after 28 years of meritorious service. His legacy of service will live on in the hearts and minds of those who were blessed to have known and to have been beneficiaries of his genuine kindness, thoughtfulness and goodness. David Leon Ockletree religious affiliations included being a former member of St. Edwards Baptist Church in Montopolis. Later, he became of member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church under the late Reverend Herbert A. Sneed. With a magnanimous spirit of goodwill and Christianity, David was always willing and ready to serve in many capacities. He served as Chairman of Mt. Olive Baptist Church’s Deacon Board, President of the Music Ministry, Member of the Male Chorus, Leader of the Van Ministry, Trustee, Treasurer, Member of the Brotherhood, Mt. Olive Senior Saints and the Church’s Doorkeeper. As a member of the community, David served as the 1st chairperson for the East Austin Relay for Life at Huston Tillotson University. Yearly, he was a very enthused champion for engaging the active participants of others in the Austin Relay for Life. David is survived by his loving daughters, Deborah and Donna Ockletree, precious grandson, Roosevelt "Tre" Mathews and Granddaughter, Danielle "Lady" Atwood, sister, Virgil Coleman (Willie Coleman) and a multitude of nieces and nephews, other relatives and a host of friends. The tone of David's voice, his warm smile and actions always displayed genuine love and affection for his family, the family of Mt Olive Baptist Church and others. David was preceded in death by his mother, Annie Mae Howard Ockletree, father, David Ockletree, wife, Dorothy Coleman Ockletree and sisters, Netter M. Morris and Mary Ann Cyphers. David's favorite song was God is a Good God. Even now, we praise God for the life, love and legacy of David Leon Ockletree.

“ I first met Deacon Ockeltree at the ole Anderson high school Yellowjacket stadium. He was so warm, friendly and engaging, I was drawn to his welcoming smile. Upon visiting Mt Olive Deacon Ockletree was my deciding factor in deciding to becoming a member. Never was there a Sunday that he didn't greet me with a warm smile and hugged. I'm grateful to have met a person so sincere and loving such as Deacon Ockeltree , I will miss him, he was a sweetheart . My sincere condolences to his daughters and grandchildren in their great lost. May God give you strength during this most difficult time.....

“ To the Ockletree family - I am so sorry for your loss, as David was such a bright light and a wonderful weekly addition to my Life. I had only known him the past 4-5+ years, but he brought me a LOT of JOY and wisdom to my world. He was a TrailBlazer for his time, and I loved learning about his history growing up, his successful journey in the workforce, and I can still hear him saying, "OKAAAAYYY!" I told him one time that I was going to record him saying, "OKAYYY" for my Ringtone, but now I regret that we never actually did that. Some of y'all have met me, as I came to some of the Musical concerts as his church and came to visit him with Carol at the hospital a couple of years ago. I snuck him in some Topo Chico and delivered it to him right after he had told me he wished he had a cold one. We had a good laugh about that. David was a servant to the Lord, and he just had a JOY about him. We shared several meals at Matt's el Rancho together, and he even made a special trip there to meet my Mother when she came in town for her 75th birthday. David was a good friend to me, and I will miss him much but keep doing my best to spread God's JOY as David was so keen on doing. David was also very encouraging and kind to me after my father was killed, so I know the loss of a father all too well. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help in this time. I'll be making a donation to the church on his behalf. And I wanted to FLY back for the funeral (I have since moved to Florida from Austin), but unfortunately that will not work. So, I'll be watching the funeral streamed. Thank you for streaming it for those out of town, bc David and I did have a talk one time that I would make it to his funeral. We said it jokingly of course (at the time), but I want to honor my word to a GREAT Man that I appreciated and ADMIRE. I've been praying for y'all during this time, and I will continue to do so. Much love and God's best to y'all as you move through this season. - Jordan Barlow

“ To my dear friends The Ockletree Family,
I will always remember Deacon Ockletree's solos and his devotional songs he lead.
He knew how to get the church riled up with his songs! A devoted servant of the Lord and a trusted Deacon who wore many hats at Mt Olive for many many years. He will be missed but never forgotten. Love you guys and you know I'm a phone call away if you need anything
