Adrian Lamar Haynes was born to Mr. Anthony Haynes and Mrs. Fallon Loggins-Lee (David) in Indianapolis, IN on April 4, 2000. His family relocated to Austin, Texas in 2014 where he attended Decker Middle School. He graduated from Manor Senior High in Manor, Texas in 2019. While attending high school he ran track to help him stay in shape. His class was the 1 st graduating class for the school. Adrian was a loving and caring person. He enjoyed being around family and friends. He loved cracking jokes and rapping. He loved going to Mount Bonnell to gather his thoughts, playing video games, and listening to Kendrick Lamar, NBA Youngboy, Lil Durk, OMB Peezy, and King Von. He loved home cooked meals prepared by his mom, especially fried pork chops. He had fun kayaking, working on his car with his Stepdad, hanging with siblings and friends, and being goofy. Adrian was such a hard worker. He always wanted to make his own money. While in high school he worked for Arby's, Watkin's Construction, Target and HEB. At the time of his passing, he was working for Express Employment.

Adrian Haynes was preceded in death by his Grandmother, Alicia R. Haynes, Grandfather, Reginald Thomas Smith (Big Reggie), Brother, Tony Haynes, Ace

Haynes, Sister, Antoniece Haynes, Niece, Aniya M. Haynes-Williams.

Adrian leaves to cherish his memory to his Granny Ella (John), Grandfather, James (Angela), Father, Anthony, Mother, Fallon (David), 4 brothers, Frederick, Amari,

Anthony, and Antonio, 1 sister, Aanae, and 1 niece, Aunisti. He also leaves to cherish his memory to his 8 Aunts, Temekia, Raishunda (Bryant), Quannita, Deja, Chandedreya, Alonna, Risa, and Lisa, 4 Uncles, Darrin, Damon, Reginald, and Semaj, and a host of loving relatives and friends.
