

Allie Mae Bates

April 13, 1934 - September 29, 2022

<https://livestream.com/accounts/7325565/alliebates>

Allie Mae Bates was born April 13, 1934 in Creston, Louisiana. She was the first of six children by Serena and Robert Richards.

As a young lady Allie Mae moved to Alamogordo, New Mexico. There she met and fell in love with her soul-mate Willie C. Bates, Sr., a U.S. Air Force Staff Sergeant. The couple united in holy matrimony on Nov 12, 1955. They had one son, Willie C. Bates, Jr., who preceded them in death. Her devoted husband of 58 years transitioned from earth to glory in the arms of his loving wife on July 2, 2013.

Allie Mae was an active member of Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church. She served faithfully as an Usher. She loved to dress in designer clothes and handbags. She was well-known for her exquisite taste in lapel pins and jewelry. Mae's favorite scripture was Psalm 23.

Love for children and the elderly led her to choose a career as a Caregiver. She loved to travel, shop and cook gumbo.

Mrs. Bates was preceded in death by her mother and father; brothers: L.C., Willie C., Joe Louis Richard; her only sister Burla Bee and her son Willie C. Bates, Jr. "aka" Junior.

She leaves to cherish her memory: brother Henry D. Richard and wife, Jaranai; devoted niece, Sherry D. Bailey; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and scores of extended family.

“ My condolences to the family. Mrs. Bates was a very sweet and soft spoken women. When I was young we lived a few houses from each other and they were friends with my parents, so her son and I grow up close like siblings. She loved liver and onions and would call me to cook it for her. My family love and have so many happy memories of the Bates. May she rest in the loving arms of God.
Respectfully submitted,
