

Alma Marie Williams

July 19, 1926 - October 3, 2016

Mrs. Alma Marie Dukes-Williams was born in Lockhart, Texas on July 19, 1926 to the parentage of Cicero and Lucy Dukes. Mrs. Williams was reared in a Christian home in Lockhart, Texas. She attended school at Lockhart Vocational High School.

Alma Williams was the fourth born of six children, five of which preceeded her in death. Mrs. Williams' parents also preceeded her in death. Alma accepted Christ into her life under the pastorship of Elder Robert A. Davis. She was a faithful member. She later united with the Sanctuary of Deliverance C.O.G.I.C. under the pastorship of Pastor Keith Brown. She was a faithful member serving wherever she could as long as her health permitted her to do so. Mrs. Williams leaves to cherish her memories, her son, Sandy Presley and wife Tanisha; her brother Cicero Dukes and wife Jimmie; grandchildren Santoria, Dy'Mond and Jhervin, all from Austin, Texas, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mrs. Williams also cherished her other grandchildren Georgia Ellison, Franco Jefferson, Dominique Jefferson, Geneva Crenshaw and family who assisted her in her daily living in the final years of her life.
