

Alonzo Ray White

February 24, 1963 - February 9, 2026

On Monday, February 9, 2026 Alonzo Ray White was called from his earthly home and went home to be with his Heavenly Father.

Alonzo Ray White was born on February 24, 1963 to Alberta White and Carl Dean Neal in Austin, Texas.

He joined the St. James Missionary Baptist Church and was baptized in 1970 at the age of seven under the leadership of the late Reverend E. M. Franklin. Alonzo's love for music led him to join the St. James Youth Choir, the Young Adult Choir, the E M Franklin Male Chorus, and Austin City Wide Choir.

He graduated from McCallum High School and furthered his education by attending Durham Business College where he received his business certificate.

Alonzo was employed at the Travis County Mailroom until he retired.

Alonzo's favorite hobbies were singing and songwriting, listening to gospel music, playing the alto sax, watching movies, baseball, football, track, basketball and fishing.

Alonzo was preceded in death by his parents Alberta White Millett and Carl

Dean Neal, grandparents, aunts: Lula Williams and Lucy Collins, uncles: Henry Williams, Donald Williams, and Marshall White.

Alonzo leaves to cherish his memories brothers: KiKi Millett, Lonnie Gooden, David Munford. Miranda Munford, Barbara Allen Munford, and sister-in-love Carolyn Carter and a host of relatives and friends.

“ I never imagined that you would leave me so soon. 50 years is not long enough for me bond that we've shared.
You're not only my brother, you're my best friend.
I'll never say goodbye but I will miss you terribly.
No one will ever take your place in my life nor my heart. I will forever cherish every second, every minute, every hour, every day and every year that we had together. Each time that I look at the many pictures we've taken I will place it on my heart and silently call your name.
Although you're gone away, you will never be forgotten.
I love you brother
