

Annice Gooden

February 18, 1955 - October 6, 2016

Annice Gooden was the third of five children born to Milton Gooden and Winnie Hill Gooden in Austin, Texas on February 18, 1955.

Annice attended Austin Public Schools and graduated from Travis High School in 1974.

She came to Christ at an early age and joined Corinth Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Levester Wilson Sr. She was a youth sponsor in the youth department and an advocate for children and she always made sure we had snacks every week. She loved the pastors and wives of the church and found special ways to serve them in her own way.

She was a loving and caring person. Anyone that knew her, knew that she loved people especially her family. She loved to walk the neighborhood and meet new people. There was not anyone in the neighborhood that did not know her. She also loved family reunions. That is when she could catch up with family on the latest news or catch them up on the latest news of the family.

She completed her journey on this earth October 6, 2016 and has now joined in communion with our Lord and Savior. Annice was preceded in death by her mother Winnie Hill- Gooden; two sisters: Linda Gay Gooden-Bedford and Jeanette Gooden-Jeffries; and one brother Milton Gooden Jr.

Annice leaves to cherish her memory: father Milton Gooden; sister: Laura Lee Gooden-Morris (Larry); four daughters: Kenya Gooden, Kisha Gooden, Minister Aisha Williams (Billy), daughterneice Deandrea Richardson, son-nephew Aaron, grandchildren: Ariel, Ja'Quesia, Keandrea, Justin, Kori Nia, Jordan, Ayden, nieces-nephews that are like her grandchildren Gary, Zaria, Lori, Malcolm, and Ya'shua, one great grandson- Kevin, nieces: Leah, great niece Ashley and great nephew Alec and a host of loving relatives and friends who will cherish her memory as well.
