I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the Faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

--2 Timothy 4: 7-8

“ Wow wow wow! Where do I begin! I meant you 14 years ago! You had this bright smile on your face that drew me to you. You were so sweet & welcoming at the store, that brought us together. From that day forward, you became my Annie Gal! I introduced you to my brother Jessie & My mother Kathy. I look at you as my Big Sister. This is so unbelievable right now. The only thing that keeps me smiling right now & not sad. Is because, you have told me many & I mean many of times! Runshay, I'm ok. I'm ready, when my time comes! My GOD is good & he knows I'm ready. I would tell you, Annie don't say that! You're not going anywhere. No time soon. You would tell me that so much, that I would just look at you & say GOD is good! I wouldn't tell you anymore not to say that because apparently you knew something, I DIDN'T! I would just listen to you. I am sad & happy all in one. It's just so hard to believe you're not here on this earth with us. I know your spirit will be with us! I say us because I feel like I was apart of you as well, along with your children that you spoke so highly of! She loved her kids, it's not one of them that you loved more, you loved them all the same! You were such a awesome person Annie! I will miss our phone conversations & miss seeing you. You will forever be my Annie Gal! Love you for ever!
