

Arthur Igweike

June 22, 1964 - January 5, 2025

Arthur Banks Igweike was born on June 22, 1964, in Preston, Great Britain, to Augustine and Francisca Igweike. After completing high school, he attended Ahmadu Bello University in Nigeria, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Geology. He later pursued a Master's degree in Software Engineering at the University of Central England in Birmingham.

Arthur began his career in Nigeria's oil industry before moving to Jacksonville, Florida. There, he met the love of his life, Coralyne Best, and they married in 1995.

Arthur was a lifelong learner who loved reading, studying, and programming. He often reminded those around him, "Never say that you're bored because there's always something to do, read, or learn." A man of honesty, loyalty, and generosity, he was a mentor, encourager, and teacher to many.

Arthur cherished time with his family, particularly his sons, Gavin and Austin, and his grandchildren, Zory and Zaidyn. He often praised and adored his wife, Cora, and found immense joy in supporting and uplifting the people around him.

Arthur's legacy of kindness, generosity, and intellectual curiosity will continue to inspire all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Augustine and Francisca Igweike; his sister, Helen Igweike; and his daughter, Frankia Palmer.

He is survived by his loving wife, Coralyne Best Igweike; his sons, Austin Igweike and Gavin Best; his grandchildren, Zory Palmer and Zaidyn Palmer; his brother, Chindo Igweike; his sisters, Rita and Linda Igweike; and his cherished nieces, Jemima, Jomilojv, Olivia, and Damilola. He also leaves behind a host of uncles, aunties, cousins, in-laws, and extended nieces and nephews who loved him dearly.

Arthur Banks Igweike passed away peacefully on January 5, 2025, at 2:52 PM, surrounded by his beloved children, grandchildren, wife, and brother.

Arthur was truly a force of life. Though words cannot fully capture the depth of his greatness, they offer a glimpse into the incredible man he was. He will be deeply missed and was cherished by many.
