Bernice C. Mosley, who loved to be called “Momma” by her kids and “B.B.” by her nieces and nephews, departed her loving family on November 22, 2020. She was born in Seguin, Texas, on January 17, 1954, to Ruby and Alexander Clack.

Bernice was mother to Kristen Angel Mosley (Austin) and James E. Mosley, Jr. She raised her children with Christian love and devotion in Austin, Texas. As a Unit Manager for the Internal Revenue Service, where she worked for 25 years, Bernice was known for her work ethic, her leadership, and her attention to detail. Her hobbies included cooking, sewing, drawing, painting, and making floral arrangements and corsages, along with watching British shows on PBS and BBC. She was most proud of her children and of purchasing her own home later in life.

She is survived by her grandchildren, Aria Barjae Mosley and Ayden James Mosley; her niece, Melissa Barker (husband, Lucas); her nephew, Benjamin Michael Gonzalez; her great-nephew, Jayden Barker; and a host of other nieces and nephews. Aside from the children she doted on, James and Angel (husband, Kenneth), Bernice is also survived by Francis.

Her love and dedication to her family, her church family and countless friends will never be forgotten.

Mama, we love you and we promise to carry out your legacy, and we promise to keep God first.

A Life Celebration by Franklin - November 30, 2020 at 03:15 PM

“ Sweet Bernice! How we will miss her. First met her at IRS and then at Mt. Zion Church. Such a Sweet Spirit. I know she's resting now. To Rev. James and Family, Heaven has certainly gained a Sweet Flower, whose fragrance here on earth will never fade. Our Prayers are with you all!
