

Betty Louise Roland

April 10, 1957 - August 25, 2025

Betty Roland was born on April 10, 1957, in Austin, Texas, to the late Willie P. Johnson and Ollie Crittendon. She was one of thirteen children and, from an early age, displayed a strength, love, and determination that would define her life.

At a young age, Betty accepted Christ under the leadership of Pastor Ulan Brown. Her faith became the foundation of her life, guiding her every step.

Forty-six years ago, Betty met the love of her life, Charles Roland. Both coming from previous marriages, they found in each other a true partner and friend. On December 7, 1991, their devotion was sealed in marriage, and together they raised a blended, beautiful family filled with love, laughter, and unity.

Their union was blessed with five children: Rickey (Marie), Fredrick (Frances), Lashon (Eddie), Sherell, and Brenette. Betty's legacy lives on through her 16 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren, all of whom brought her tremendous joy.

She was preceded in death by five siblings: Antonio Crittendon, Shirley Jackson, Matthew Williams, Sherry Johnson, and Regional Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Rev. Charles Roland; her children; grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and her beloved siblings: Mary DeShay (Murray DeShay),

Mary Garrett (Rev. Robert Garrett), Patricia Strickland (Rev. Larry Strickland), Donald

Williams, Ronald Williams, Sherman Johnson (Geneva Johnson), and Algie Grant. Also mourning her passing and celebrating her life is her special mother-in-law, Mrs. Beulah Caesar, whom she loved and respected dearly.

Betty was known for her strong faith, her deep love for family, and her incredible resilience. Yet one of her most endearing passions was her love for cleanliness. You could beat Betty at many things, but cleaning was not one of them. It brought her peace, joy, and pride.

Even in her final days, her heartfelt wish was to return home—just so she could clean her house.

Her life was a living testimony of perseverance, grace, and care. She touched countless lives with her kindness, quiet wisdom, and unwavering devotion.

Betty said farewell on August 25, 2025. She will be forever remembered, honored, and deeply missed by all who knew her.

As the songwriter reminds us: “It’s so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.”

“ I know I know if God would have ask me it wouldn't have never been enough time with you. But I'm thankful that he allowed me to have you as my mom for 68 year's when I say you was the best mom, sister, grandmother, wife, auntie, friend, co-worker, neighbor, you had a heart of gold , and loved on you're enemies as well. When God called you home he pick the best flower in the garden. But remove the best flower we had down here on earth, she was the glue left to our family... and since you been gone , everything you patched up has been coming unglued, the bond, the love, the caring, the looking out for each other, like this been the worst I experienced we had to deal with by far this has damaged a lot of us... it definitely damaged me... but I'm holding on and keeping the faith because I wanna see you again mama and all of the rest of my love ones. Tell everyone I love them and save room for me up there.. I will mourn you until I join you... I Love you my Ladie.... And I miss you my Queen my Angel from heaven above keep watching over us 🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️🥺👍👍👍

I was our only daughter so our was unmatched. I’m so overwhelmed with grief hurt confusion and anger. You and I talked every day and you would’ve thought we would have ran out of things to talk about, but we didn’t. I feel like I’m sinking deeper into a dark hole of depression and anxiety. I feel so alone people keep telling me it gets better with time, but I honestly find that hard to believe sitting in silence and watching other family members congrats laughing and reminiscing on their times with you isn’t easy. I don’t want memory. I want you my mom I need you my mom there are so many life events and experiences. I still need to share with you that I won’t have a chance to now this isn’t fair. “ Hello Mother/ (Ladie) I’m having one of my day’s, I may not never understand or why! I’m so lost and confused and I just don’t know what to do with myself, I always told you If you ever left before me I don’t know what I’ll now here i am living them exact words that I told you. I can’t pick up the phone and call you, I’m stuck with listening to voicemails from you... pictures... I’m forever grateful and thankful that God chose you to be my Mother, I was definitely blessed with the best,. I will take each day that God bless me to pick myself back up and gather myself and start working towards the goals that I promised myself and you..... I love you forever until I meet and see you again! Please watch over me and the family!! Tell God I said to please take care of you and the rest of my love ones... save a spot for me mama. I miss and love you you’re baby girl (mama) / Shon Shon

“ I was blessed and privileged to work and be Betty's leader for 4 years. I learned a lot from Betty in that time, and she fiercely loved God and her family. I loved Betty and her family so much, the void that Betty has left will be felt immensely. But, Heaven has received such a kind, loving soul, and there is no doubt she'll be smiling from above and watching over her family. ❤️
