I'm so sorry Whitney. I just heard this terrible news today and found this beautiful obituary. Brittany was always such a shining light to me after Garrett's death. I hope they are rejoicing together in heaven.

I'm so very sorry to learn this sad news. Brittany was always such a bright light to me m, especially after Garrett's death. I remember when Brittany and all of her gal pals picked me up to have dinner & go see the Sex in the City Movie after Garrett death (he was really looking forward to seeing it). We all cried and laughed. I always enjoyed her spirit and company.

My prayers go out to her family and all those missing her so. I hope she and Garrett are together rejoicing in heaven.

“ It saddens me greatly to hear of Brittany passing. She was like a sister to me from middle school to our early 20's. I hope she is somewhere up high laughing that contagious laugh, and smiling down on all her loved ones. Love you girl

“ I was so saddened to hear about Brittany's passing. She was an absolute joy to work with each and every night. She went out of her way to make sure that my job was easier. Brittany was considerate, kind, and so thoughtful. She will be greatly missed by many.

“ Brittany, the first time I met you at work you were an intern. I only worked with you a few times before I left, but I knew that you had things under control and that it would be a good shift. I enjoyed your energy, your warmth, and our shared fondness for office supplies. To your family, I offer my deepest sympathy and condolences.

“ Brittany,
No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye, you were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.

Rest In Peace, my niece!

“ I remembered Brittany when she first came to us as a trainee. She is a smart, hardworking, and gentle person. She was quickly liked by the staff, so much that was eventually hired on full time to the team. Even though my time working with her was brief, I will always remembered Brittany as being one of the best. She will be missed.
