“ *I salute you Mr. Burrell Williams Sr. for your love and service to God, family and country.
I remember Mr. Williams as an unselfish giver, a dedicated friend, and a soldiers soldier.
God sent Mr. Williams into my life at just the right time. A time when i needed help both physically and spiritually. To me he was a father figure and a friend, a man of few word but great wisdom.
My soul has been blessed and my life enriched, because God allowed me the opportunity to know Mr. Williams.
Missed, but never forgotten.

“ I met this wonderful man about ten years ago. His Mother and my Aunt shared a room at the Nursing Home. He is the most caring and giving person that I have ever met. We became friends for life, shared precious memories and always had a laugh before we finished our conversations on the phone. My dear friend, I miss you already and will forever treasure our friendship.

*Love you,
Kathy*
