“ My condolences and prayers to the family of my friend Carol Birdow. I met Carol, fourteen years ago, after relocating to Austin, Tx from Southern California. I worked as a contractor at her place of employment. I have some awesome memories of her that will be forever cherished. She enjoyed listening to her praise and worship music, such a inspirational and delightful person. Carol, had a sweet loving spirit, quick to pray with anyone, she helped whenever there was a need. Her laughter is unforgettable. Her friendship is unmeasurable, a wonderful person all around. She will always be my big spiritual sister and friend. I thank God for blessing our spirits to meet on earth. Heaven needed you, I know she is whole again, wearing her crown. Love always my sistah!!! She will be truly missed. 🙏💖🕊️ God bless in Jesus name. Amen!!! 🙌🙌💖🕊️🕊️💖🕊️

“ Carol was an amazing person, so caring, gentle will pray with you at any time day or night! She is & will always be my work mama. I first started working for the DMV/TXDOT when I was 18 years old & Carol has been through every trail & tribulations with me since. I am 32 years old now. As others will say, she has touched my life so much. I never thought it would come a time to write this tribute. I still see her as a walking miracle. No amount of medication will ever make her feel better & now she is doing her happy dance & living her best life with our heavenly Father God! Love you mama ❤️ 🙏

“ Ms. Carol was like another Grandmother. My mom worked with her for years at TxDMV/TxDOT, so I've known her since I was young. I got the pleasure to eventually work with her myself. She left me her "splainin stick" when she retired. She is a caregiver through and through, always putting smiles on faces. She will be deeply missed.
