

Charles EDD Clemons II

January 8, 1975 - March 22, 2023

Charles Edward Clemons, II, was born January 8, 1975 in the Panama Canal Zone to Floreese (Eason) Clemons and Charles Edward Clemons. He is the stepson of Rev. Tommy Mayberry. The light of his family Charles was the second of four children. He attended Johnston High School and moved on to graduate from McCallum High School. Upon graduation Charles went on to become a multi-faceted businessman. In Austin history he is remembered for founding The Trap Kitchen. He was also known for helping everyone. Most importantly, Charles was the perfect father to his son.

Charles will be greatly missed and leaves to cherish his memory his mother Floreese Clemons; grandmother Johnnie Henderson; Father Charles Edward Clemons; wife Kimberley R. Clemons; one son, Indego Eclipse Clemons; one grandson, De'Sean Ray Clemons; sisters Stephanie Atkins, Charolette Clemons; one brother Carlos Clemons; aunts Thelma Sorrells, Mary McKenzie; step-father Rev. Tommy Mayberry, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
