December 26, 1986 - November 27, 2022

Chasity Davis Scott, beloved wife, daughter, adored sister, cherished aunt, loyal friend, died unexpectedly at the Seton Medical Hospital in Harker Heights on November 27, 2022. Chasity Davis Scott, was born in Taylor, Texas on December 26, 1986, the only daughter of the late Timothy Davis, who was a labor man. Chasity Davis Scott, was the first child of Patricia Robinson Harris, who has been in Customer Service for many years.

Chasity Davis Scott, graduated from Taylor High School in 2004 and went on to attend NIT, which she graduated with an associate degree for medical assistance. Chasity loved working with elder people. She would say mom these old folks know what they be talking about and laughing at the same time. She attended The First Baptist Church, in Taylor, Texas, under Pastor Watson.

On May 5, 2019 she married Pastor Johnathan Scott, and resided in Killeen, Texas. Chasity loved to sing. It didn't matter who she was with or where she was at, often she could be heard with a song in heart. Her favorite color was blue, and she loved to sketch draw and color. Those were the activities that gave her peace, and always led to a song. Chasity seemed to have endless energy and she brought that energy with her everywhere she went. She had a strong will, a quick smile, a giving heart, and a loving spirit. She did her best to enjoy life everyday. Her Legacy will continue, and others will be blessed by it;

She is survived by her three brothers Joe Fitzgerald, of Austin, TX, Jarvis Fitzgerald, of Del Valle, TX and Justin Fitzgerald, of Austin, TX. She also leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.
