Christopher Stephen "Danny" Hunt was born on May 29, 1964 in Taylor, Texas to Johnnie Denmon and Idella Mackey Hunt. He is preceded in death by both parents and brother, Michael Jerome Hunt.

Danny graduated from Giddings High School and then started his career at Budweiser in Giddings, TX and continued until he relocated to Austin, TX. He then was employed with the City of Round Rock and the State of Texas. His pass time was spent shooting pool, listening to music, watching sports and westerns, and making sure his vehicle was shining. He loved spending time with his cousin Beverly, who had the pleasure of spending his last months with him. They had a special kind of bond with each other.

Danny leaves to cherish his memories one son: Johnnie Hunt of Elgin, Texas; two daughters: Sha'Londa Shaw Holmes of Houston, Texas and Lorie Hunt of Elgin, Texas; four grandchildren: Samaya, Sanaa, Johnnie Jr., Bria; eight sisters: Katherine Akin of Arlington, Texas; Annette Rivers of Pflugerville, Texas, Hazel Lockley (Samuel) of Taylor, Texas, Lilly Mitchell (John) of Hutto, Texas, Caroline Hunt of Ft. Worth, Texas, Ramona Caruther (Horace) of Manor, Texas, Tina Hunt of Taylor, Texas and Tonya Hunt of Ball, Louisiana; A special cousin: Beverly Dixon of Killeen, Texas; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Oh my God Danny you will be truly missed because you were a true friend. You tried to prepare me for this moment, but it's still hard to except. But there's No more pain, No more sleepless nights. I'll miss the special friendship we shared. Thank you Beverly (blackmama) as he called you, he really appreciated and loved you for all you did for him. Until we meet again ❤️
