

Clement Jones Sr

October 9, 1951 - March 26, 2019

Deacon Clement Jones, Sr., was born October 8, 1951 in Carver Heights, Maryland to Essie Lee and Charles Jones. The family later moved to Texas where he attended Bastrop High School.

After attending high school, Clement joined the U.S. Army and served his country. Upon the completion of his tour of duty, he returned to Texas where he worked construction. His favorite employer was Austex Construction, where he met Jerry Acosta, who became his longtime friend.

April 5, 1994, was the best day of his life, as told by him. This was the day he was joined in holy matrimony with the love of his life, Freddie Powell. They were together for many years and celebrated many milestones together.

Deacon Jones professed his love for Jesus Christ early in his life. For over 20 years, he served at the Little Zion Baptist Church in the big city of Manor, Texas. During his tenure at LZBC, he started at the door ushering with his wife and family. He served as President of the Brotherhood and was lead singer with the male chorus. On October 8, 2011, he was ordained as a Deacon of LZBC. This was a role that he loved. He loved serving the church, working with the brotherhood, and all of the auxiliaries. He thoroughly enjoyed lending a hand where ever he was needed.

Deacon Clement Jones was preceded in death by his loving parents, his sisters Mary Woods and Linda Washington, and his brother Robert Jones. He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Freddie Jones. His three children. Son, Leonard Jones of Lockhart, Texas. Son Clement (Gayle) Jones,

Jr. of manor, Texas. Daughter, Michelle (Alfred) Hinton of Manor, Texas. His brothers and sister Charles (Theresa) Jones, Cleve Jones, Eudell Jones, and Clementine Hoskins. He also leave to treasure his memories his grandchildren and great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and numerous friends.

April 5, 1934, was the first day of his life, as told by his son. This was the day he was placed in early companionship with the love of his life, Franklin Woodard. They were together for many years and continued many adventures together.

Franklin Woodard passed away for good on October 10, 2019. For over 20 years, he worked at the Little Elm Baptist Church as the City of Little Elm, Texas. During his career as LEIC, he worked in the area relating with his wife and family. He served as President of the Woodward and was laid to rest in the cemetery. On October 10, 2019, he was laid to rest in a Church of LEIC. There was a wife that he loved. He loved serving the church, working with the congregation, and all of the activities. He thoroughly enjoyed having a hard time that he was needed.

Franklin's funeral service was provided as death by his living parents, his
