Jim and Pearl Fletcher gave birth to Clifton Fletcher March 21, 1934 in Pflugerville, Texas.

Clifton was raised in a strong Christian family and attended public schools in the Pflugerville and Ridgetop area of Central Texas. After High school Clifton served in the United States Army until he was honorably discharged after an injury. Clifton liked trucks, fishing, hunting, raising livestock and farming. He retired from the City of Austin after working 30 years with the Street and Bridge Division.

After retiring, Clifton spent more time enjoying his hobbies and family. Clifton and his first wife Florine Green shared 5 kids; Kathereine Allen. Kenneth Fletcher and Sharon Houston; Victor Green (Step-son), Billie Bell (step-daughter), Beverly Murphy.

After the death of his first wife, he found love and married Mary Faye Qualls. He loved to play dominoes with his family and friends and welcomed a family BBQ. He was a man of few words but when he spoke the lesson was clearly learned. His grandson, Phillip would say, "no matter how you thought or how you felt, when you seen that pick-up truck make that right turn on Sandshof, your attitude better be on point... he played zero games." Clifton was preceded in death by his first wife Florine, his father, mother, seven brothers, three sisters and three daughter, Katherine Allen, Sharon Houston and Billie Bell.

Clifton leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Mary Faye, two sons, Victor Green (Loretta) and Kenneth Fletcher of Austin, Texas; daughter, Beverly Murphy (RL) of Austin, Texas, step-daughter, Linda Cohns (Larry) of Pflugerville, Texas, brother John Fletcher of Austin, Texas; sister, Helen Wright of Compton, CA, 22 grandchildren and 34 great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends
