

Clinton A. "New York" Franklin

March 26, 1962 - October 9, 2015

Clinton Antoine Franklin "New York," departed this life at Seaton North West on October 9, 2015 after a long courageous battle with Lung Cancer. Clinton is preceded by his Father William "Bill" Franklin and Step-Father Harold "Sonny" Leath.

Clinton was born in Welch, West Virginia on March 26, 1962, and was the last of four children born to Cynthia Leath and William Franklin. He attended school in West Virginia before moving to Westchester, New York. Once he received his High School Diploma he educated himself on all things automotive and entered the automotive industry as an automotive technician. Upon entering the automotive industry he became a small business owner, in which he bought and sold vehicles. This truly was his passion, as he enjoyed the process of disassembling a vehicle and making the necessary repairs and reassembling them back again.

Clinton is survived by his common law wife Leticia Caldwell, his mother Cynthia Leath, his children: Diamond Hope Franklin, Leatrice Jones Carpenter, Princeton "Tank" Washington, Randell Jones, Randy Jones, Allerick "Honey" Jones, Ombre Jones, and Antoine Jones; his step-children: Brian Crawford, Darrel Crawford, and Terrel Sanderson; his grandchildren: Trae'von, True, Honesty, and Promise, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Spud my heart aches and I don't know how to heal. I think about you everyday. Everything in life reminds me of you. If I listen to music, see the sun or just what ever I think about, my memories goes back to you. We are all trying to be strong but its hard. We all miss you.

Charlene Bethel - February 24, 2016 at 04:42 PM

Happy Birthday baby brother, I didn't get to call like I use too and wish you a happy 54th. You rest now because you put up a real good fight and I know you were in pain and tired, never once did you give up. Tank's new CD will be out Monday and guess what 1st song features YOU. Love you baby brother keep watching over your family and keep us safe, we all love you.
