

Curtis L. Blue

December 31, 1957 - December 15, 2020

Curtis Lee Blue Jr (Jim) was born December 31, 1957 to Curtis and Hattie Bell Brown Blue in Austin, Texas. He worked for Tracor headquarters in Austin for 15 years and later at National Tire and Battery where he retired due to health issues.

He attended Good Hope Baptist Church in Round Rock, Texas for several years where he sang in the choir and was baptized by his uncle Rev. Robert R. Williams, Sr.

Whenever you met him you could count on leaving with laughs and great memories as he was always the life of the party and he lived his life to the fullest. He had a smile that would brighten any room and a personality to match. He stayed true to who he was maintaining an undeniable integrity that could never be compromised. Everyone that knew him, knew he could be stubborn and that getting him to do something he did not agree with would be challenging. That same stubborn attitude gave him the drive to never give up ultimately overcoming a crippling leg injury as well as the endurance to fight his cancer for three long years.

On December 15, 2020 he was called home after a long battle with cancer. He will be loved and missed by many and forgotten by none and those of us whose lives he touched are forever beholden.

Curtis was preceded in death by both his parents and his brother Michael. He leaves to mourn his home going two sisters Patricia Showels (Willie Jr) of Round Rock, Texas, Brenda Carpenter (Bishop Wayne) of Culpeper, Virginia, one brother Larry of Austin, Texas. He also will be missed by his beloved aunt, Beatrice Williams "Aunt Sister" and a host of relatives and friends.
