

DEBRA (DEB) ANN TEALER

November 21, 1954 - August 24, 2020

Debra Tealer, 65, entered eternal rest on Monday, August 24th. She was born in La Grange, TX on November 21, 1954 to the late Allen Ray Williams and Freddie Mae Harris.

Debra was employed with Mary Lee Foundation for many years until her health declined which resulted in years of disability. However, her resilience and determination allowed her to adjust and push forward in life. Debra's favorite color was red which matched her personality. One year she requested a red microwave for Mother's Day, and she had bright splashes of red accented throughout her house. She adored the animated cartoon character Betty Boop who was well known for her red dress and lipstick. Additionally, Debra enjoyed watching westerns, jokingly talking noise with her favorite cousins, and reminiscing about the good ole days. The ultimate love of her life were her grandkids. She lit up when they called or visited, and she endured strong in health for them. She was loved and cared for by her daughters and caregivers, and she will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Debra was preceded in death by her Father, Allen Ray Williams, Husband, Melvin Tealer, and her beloved Granddaughter Ciara Faith Edwards.

She leaves to cherish her memories Mother: Freddie Mae Robinson, Daughters: Davetta Edwards and Stacie Robinson, Son-in-law: Robert Edwards, Grandkids: Jonathan Edwards, Christopher Edwards, Isaiah Garcia, Matthew Edwards, Kirstyn Edwards, Neiasia Robinson, SirVon Fowler, Darriyah Fowler, Darryl Fowler Jr., and Great Grandson: Kyrie Liam Garcia.

Furthermore, Debra leaves a host of loving Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and Friends
