“ Delila Hill of Thrall, Texas, passed away entering eternal life in the early morning hours on July 19, 2016 at St.David's Hospital in Round Rock, Texas after many health ailments.

She was born April 22, 1956 to Edward & Mildred Benningfield. She graduated from Round Rock High School in 1974.

Delila met Nathaniel, they became best of friends and she married her loving husband July 8, 1998.

Throughout her life she's received many awards from numerous jobs as she was very hard working and determined for the best results not only from her job and business but in every aspect of her life.

Delila always had a smile upon her face, jokes to tell, ("tuff titty said the kitty, but the milk's still good", "half past the monkey's ass, a quarter till it's balls") and many more. She loved getting others to laugh

She was always ready to lend helping hands to anyone.

Delila Hill will be remembered by her kind, loving and generous heart, her wonderful sense of humor, quirky jokes, her sparkling blue eyes and fierce character not being afraid to take on any kind of battle. She's a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, daughter and a best friend. Delila loved and cherished her family. Delila's spirit and memories are carried on by her husband: Nathaniel Hill, four children: Mildred Jane , Debra Michelle, Mattie Ann, and Joseph Aeron, 14 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren,; her brothers: Coy and his wife Kathy and Troy Benningfield,; nieces, nephews and more family members.

Delila Hill is perceived in death by her son; Dennis Wayne Morrison Jr., her mom & dad; Edward and Mildred Benningfield, her sister; Ava McDonald
