“ My heart broke when I heard about Diamond's passing. She was my therapist this summer. 5 days a week for an hour she provided treatment that not everybody can do, for my condition is not a pretty one. She provided treatment that only a person with a heart like the Lord Jesus, a heart for service can effectively provide and she was excellent! I remember several times apologizing to her and she would respond "oh no! You're fine! You're fine!" With that big smile and laugh she had. For an hour 5 days a week we would talk about all kinds of things. She was my therapist and she became my friend. She was the sweetest person and I'm so glad I got to tell her that. Diamond, I'm so sorry this happened to you. Family, I am truly sorry for your loss. She was definitely a light dimmed too soon.

“ A diamond is known to be one of the strongest gems to own.
A diamond she had to be because her love was just that strong.
Bright and shimmering
Warm and kind
Faithful and forever true
Diamond she had to be because no other name would do.
Her eyes made emeralds jealous
Her laugh made sapphires show
Rubies would hide and step aside at the wonder of her glow
She is now the crowning jewel in heaven
The father shall adore her until time end
She will forever be known as his favorite one who shined brighter than a diamond

*I remember the many times that Diamond and Kenya would come to our office for a visit. Both Diamond and Kenya were always so respectful and kind. I loved listening to their stories and watching them grow into adulthood. I am so sorry for your loss. Diamond was so kindhearted and sweet. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Jeff, Kenya, and the Bridgeman family.
My deepest condolences,
