Donie Salice Torrance Rainey was born on February 8th, 1975, in Rockford Memorial Hospital in Rockford, IL to James and Carolyn Torrance.

She accepted Christ at an early age under Dr. E.H. Gilbert and was a member of Pilgrim Baptist Church. Her family moved to Austin, TX in 1986, where she attended Robins Alternative School, graduating in 1993. She had a mind for business and knew early on that she wanted to be self-employed. She attended Round Rock Beauty School where she received her license as a Nail Technician. In 2004, she opened “Nails Naturally” Salon and Spa. Her clients will miss her dearly.

She was married to Edward (Yahseim) Rainey. He will cherish their memories together forever.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Donie leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Edward (Yahseim) Rainey; mother, Carolyn (Charles) Shavers; son, Phillip D. (Alexis) Torrance; one grandson, Atreaus Torrance—whom she adored; daughter, Eallyah Rainey; one brother, James (Christine) Torrance; sister, LeKenda (Darrell) Russell; half-sister, Coretta Williams; step-sister Stefanie Shaves; step brother, Harold Shavers; her paternal grandmother, Pearline

Torrance; mother-in-law, Alice Harris, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I am so sorry to learn that Donie has passed away. I will miss her so much. My condolences to her whole family--her husband, her son and his wife, and their little boy, her mother and stepfather, her sister and her family. I got to meet many of you at one time or another in the years I have been her client and friend. Best manicures and pedicures ever!
