Doris Mack was the proud daughter of Herman and Elizabeth Brooks. She was born on November 27, 1932.

Doris was born in Austin, Texas and attended Austin Public Schools. She graduated from the Original L. C. Anderson High School in the Class of 1950. She attended Huston-Tillotson College, now HustonTillotson University.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized at an early age. She as a life-long member of David Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. She had participated in the Tuesday morning Bible Study group and was a member of Mission 1. She was a member of the Delta Friends, a group of ladies who were friends of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., until the group disbanded.

She was married briefly to Al Mack. No children were born to this union.

Dottie, as she was affectionately called, was a sweet and gentle person. She was a hard worker. She worked in private homes. Doris loved to cook and enjoyed having family and friends over to partake in her delicacies. Every holiday, the family enjoyed her delicious meals. She took special attentions in the preparations of her meals.

On Friday, June 1, 2018, Doris quietly made her transition from this earthly life and went to be with the Lord. She was preceded in death by her parents.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted and loving sister, Mary F. Dallas; niece, Nancy Thompson and husband, Donald; greatnephew, Roderick Thompson and wife, Leslie; great-niece and Goddaughter, Tashia Coleman and husband, Michael; great-great nieces and nephews, Steven Coleman, Taylor Thompson, Ross Thompson, Melvin Coleman and Brooke Thompson; and her cousin, Bobi White. Doris was blessed to have close friends, Doris Crawford and Delores Duffie. Her best, long-time and dear friend, Mary Washington. She leaves a host of cousins, extended family members and friends.
