

Dorothy Louise Carter

December 25, 1949 - July 23, 2018

Dorothy Louise Carter was born December 25th, 1949 in Shreveport, Louisiana to Horace Carter Sr. and Susie Jefferson-Carter. She accepted the Lord at age 7, while at Shiloh Baptist Church and attended Booker T. Washington high school. When her son, Roderick Carter, was 3 years old, she and her mother relocated to Los Angeles, California. She continued to grow her family, which now included two daughters: Roslyn Ellison and Lakeshia Roby. She joined Grant AME Church Los Angeles in 1974, volunteering as a parent helper to the junior choir. Her first place of employment was Macy's and she retired from Phone-Mate after 25 years of service. She moved to Hutto, Texas in 2009 and attended CrossWork Christian Center, where she served as the head of the hospitality committee. She enjoyed travelling, fishing, and meeting new people.

She was preceded in death by her parents (Horace Carter Sr., Susie Jefferson-Carter), older-brother (Horace Carter Jr.), and grand-child (Jaden Carter). Her legacy includes children (Roderick Carter, Roslyn Ellison, Lakeshia Roby), grand-children (Marinne Nolen, LaTresha Nolen Jeremy Carter, Ardonious Sparks, Roderick Carter Jr., Keshawn Jackson, Derrick Sparks, Victoria Ellison, Mykell Johnson, Kani Willis, Richard Jackson, Karter Willis), and great-grandchildren (Kaden Bell, Amir Carter, Jordan Davis, Messiah Carter, Xavier Carter, London Davis, Dylan Davis). She also leaves behind: dear-friends Mae Alexander, Robin Davis, and Sheila Bridgewater who were like sisters to her; Mary & Lee Heard (her spiritual parents); and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
