“ Thank you for training me, for being a role model and instructing me to teach the deaconess in the state and the nationals. I've grown so much under your guidance. I will never forget our talks and your passion for young people to be respectful. You did not let it go about the young men who need to pull their pants up. Hehe. I miss those meetings. Grateful to God to have you in my life. Momma Dorothy I salute you, I love you and will miss you. My mom & dad Pearl & Jimmy adore you so much. I will always remember that smile you give me because I was so shy. I knew you love me and was proud of me. You did it, you got me to talk, to pray for others and suck it up in life. 🤢 That time you said I put too much bleach on my nurse hat! That time you had me do a presentation at the last minute. I found it to be my calling. God bless me to do so many speeches/lessons & workshops. It started with you saying "shes our baby deaconess go on and share a scripture and testimony. I was horrified!!! I am a much calmer person in Christ spirit and I learned strenght and order watching you. My beautiful Sargeant. Hehe Rest In Peace Denice Tinnon

“ Mother Peterson embraced our family as her own when Elder Vennie Davis, my brother, was given the honor to serve as the lead pastor of Bastrop Primitive Baptist Church. She nurtured him and his wife and yet, served faithfully and dutifully as a Christian woman who truly believed in the tenets of the Christian church. Her presence and voice of hope will always remain in our spirits and hearts.

“ Sharon and Peterson Family, I certainly share in your loss and grief of your Mother. What a beautiful Servant and Soldier for the Lord. She had such a good Spirit whenever I saw her. She had been on God's battlefield for years!

She will be so missed, especially anytime I go to a Worship Service in Bastrop.

You all just keep your hands and hearts in God and He Will see you through this. Even in the days and years to come.

My Prayer and Hope is that you all will see the reason and seize the opportunity to give God Praise, even now. The Power is in The Praise. Although you may wipe away tears, God promised to be with you always, until that day when He Will wipe away All tears. What a time that will be. Mrs. Peterson will be there....

My condolences to you all!

I remember so many things that you and Julie and my Mom (Laverne) taught me about nursing when I was in school. Then after I became an LVN how to trust my instincts and knowledge. But to have fun and enjoy your life 💕 LOVE Mary Miller
