

Dorothy Walker

December 21, 1934 - July 13, 2024

Dorothy “SL” Taylor Bunton Walker was born in Manor, Texas on December 21, 1934 to Earnest Taylor, Sr. and Annie Monroe Taylor.

She accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age. Dorothy joined Mount Zion Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor G. V. Clark, where she served on the Usher Board faithfully until she was no longer able.

Dorothy attended Manor High School in Manor, Texas. She started her nursing career early at Brackenridge Hospital and later went on to work at the Austin State Hospital where she retired. She was also part owner of a funeral home. Dorothy loved her family. She enjoyed traveling, going to family reunions, playing dominos and spades, and family gatherings.

Dorothy married Robert Lee Bunton and to this union three children were born: Carolyn J. Bunton Robinson, Philip A. Bunton, and Ida Mae Bunton Miller. Dorothy later married Jafus Nathaniel Walker, Jr. on July 27, 1969, and to this union two sons were born and five step-daughters were gained: Jearold Patrick Bunton, Sr. and Jafus Nathaniel Walker, III; step-daughters, Deborah Walker Higgins, Patricia Walker Clark, Bridgett Denise Thornton, Kimele Yvette Walker Clinton, and Dorothy Yvonne Walker.

She was preceded death by her parents, husbands, son Philip Bunton, sisters: Ida Mae Jackson and Alice Williams; three brothers: Willie Taylor, A.W. Taylor and Earnest Taylor, Jr.; and grandson Michael Gattis. Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Carolyn Robinson and Ida Mae Miller; sons, Jearold Bunton and Jafus Walker, III; step-daughters, Deborah,

Pat, Bridgett, Kim, and Peanut. Dorothy also leaves two sisters, Earlene Williams and Ruby Shaw, 7 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.
