Earl Glenn Doyle was the eighth child born to Edward O. Doyle, Sr. and Rosa L. Doyle on Christmas Eve of 1952 at Holy Cross Hospital in Austin, Texas.

Earl attended Austin Public Schools from elementary through high school.

Earl relocated to Pomona, California in 1980 to live with his paternal grandmother after the passing of his paternal grandfather.

Earl held down many jobs from a childcare professional to the food industry as a baker and cook.

Earl was a skillful and passionate baker and cook. If you didn't know he was surely going to inform you of his skills. How everything he cooked and baked was from scratch. He was a self proclaimed Culinary Professional! (Smile)

Earl was the life of the party! Who didn't love some Earl! Earl loved to entertain family and friends with tasteful recipes and music.

Earl was always helping others who were in need of housing, food and or transportation. He was truly a blessing to others.

Earl was preceded in death by his parents Edward O. Doyle, Sr. and Rosa L. Doyle, his older brothers; Edward O. Doyle, Jr. and Minister Robert L. Doyle, Sr.

Earl leaves to celebrate his memory his siblings; Rosa Marie Doyle; Marilyn Joyce McKinley; James E. Doyle (Sandra); Barbara Jean Scott (Calvin); Odis Wayne Doyle, Sr. (Lois) and Camera Joyce Doyle (sister-in-love). God brothers; Pastor Leonard D. James, Sr. (Kathy) and Billy Steen. Special family friend, Kimberly D. Hill. Aunts; Charlotte Robinson (Madison); Verna Codd (Victor); Claudia Curtis (Richard) and Geraldine McNeil and load and loads of nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ Im so sorry for the of a great friend, the last time i seen Earl was at my cousin Morri McDaneil . He had made us some peach cobblers for the family, we loved loved his cooking and he made the best sugar cookies. He had called me and told me that he had all his stuff to start bakingwhen he was living with my brother Michael he would always have something sweet for me when he knew that i was coming over. Going To Miss you my friend..Jesus is going to love your sugar cookies.....RIP MY FRIEND... Michael sister ...Phyllis McSwain..

“ The Scriptures tell us; If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

We love you Earl. Rest in Love, Bruh, Rest in Love.

Earl Glenn was a previous soul. He was a giver and full of humor, and had the most hilarious laugh ever. Everyone knows his creativeness and culinary skills and ambitions. Earl loved his family deeply, immediate and extended. He was a good friend to many and could debate and was super opinionated and could hold his own for whatever be believed. In short as his paternal aunt who spent so much time with and around him, I can truly say we will always cherish the memories of him. He might be gone from this earthly home, but he has gone to that heavenly home with no more pain and suffering. Missing you 💔💔💔 Aunti Margi and family!
