March 28, 1937 - September 23, 2025

Easter Mae was born on Easter Sunday, March 28, 1937 to her parents Sidney Davis and Bertha Davis in New Iberia, Louisiana. Easter Mae gained her wings on Sept 23, 2025.

She was raised in New Iberia, LA. Where she attended school and worked. She met and married Alfred "Putt" Solomon and to that union one child was born Michael Solomon, Sr. Easter left her home in Louisiana and moved to California. During her time in California; she met and married the love of her life Harold "Chick" Waston, Sr. To this union, 3 children were born, her only daughter, Ingrid and 2 sons Derek and Harold Jr. (Mr. G). The Watsons settled in Austin, TX around 1970. Easter and Chic lived happily raising their family until his passing on November 22, 2000.

Easter instilled in her children the faith and love of God. She also held them to a high educational standard, and expected them to excel academically. This is seen throughout her legacy of children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Easter was a wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, caregiver, aunt and a provider. Her most cherished title was grandmother, and she was affectionately called MawMaw by her grandchildren. And they all meant the world to her. She always had a song to sing to and would dance to the right song at any given time.

Easter was preceded in death by her husband, Harold Watson, Sr., her son Michael Solomon, Sr., parents Sidney Davis and Bertha Davis LeBlanc, her siblings Betty Ruth, Gerald, Samuel, Rosalie, Lawrence "LD" Sr., Alberta, Alice, John, JoAnn and Sidney.
