

Eddie Hardin Jr.

December 20, 1940 - August 25, 2015

Today we bid farewell and celebrate the life of a beloved father, brother, uncle, in-law, and friend. Eddie “Bubba” Hardin, Jr. Eddie departed this life on Tuesday, August 25, 2015.

Eddie was born December 20, 1940 in Austin, TX to the late Eddie Hardin Sr. and Lorine Hardin. He was raised in Austin, TX and attended to the Austin Independent School District.

Eddie accepted Christ at an early age at St. Edwards Baptist Church. He later joined Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend N.W. Bacon Jr., and then under Pastor Gaylon Clark where he served as a faithful usher until his health failed.

Eddie was employed with the City of Austin and later he was employed with Austin National Bank for thirty (30) years plus. Eddie retired from Austin National Bank.

May, 1970, Eddie married Doris Marie Joyner. They had a loving and kind relationship. Together they raised two amazing sons, Arthur Anthony Fowler and Craig Fowler. Eddie and Marie loved to travel and always held family gatherings at their home.

Eddie was preceded in death by his parents, Eddie and Lorine Hardin, his wife, Doris Marie Hardin, son Craig Fowler, and brother Arthur Lee Edwards.

Eddie leaves to cherish his memories one son Arthur Anthony Fowler, two sisters Laverne H. Lee and Tijuanna Pendergrass, two brothers Altee Hardin, Sr (Teeta). and Gregory Pendergrass, a special nephew/son Amarious TreeVonne White, three sister-in-laws Sammie Mae Young, Eloise Holmes (David), and Linda Faye White, two brother-in-laws Leonard Joyner and John Henry Joyner, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
