

Edwin LaRon Rowe

January 26, 1974 - March 18, 2026

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eye; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. - Revelation 21:4 KJV

Edwin La'Ron Rowe (Ron) was born January 26, 1974, in Austin, Texas to Jeffery Rowe and Peggy Thomas. He gave his life to Christ at an early age and was a member of the Mount Zion Baptist Church. He believed in God and the power of prayer with all his heart. Ron and his sister were raised to be close knit, God loving, and to value: family, respect, and loyalty.

Ron graduated from Albert Sydney Johnston High School, the home of the Rams, in 1992 where he was an amazing athlete and excelled in football, baseball, and basketball. He's got the trophies and newspaper clippings to prove it! He also found pleasure in boxing. Later, Ron found fulfillment in the freedom of truck driving. He spent more than 20 years on the road.

Known for his boisterous personality, playful spirit, bright smile, and warm embrace, he never met a stranger. He could make his way in any room. To be in his presence was to be deeply loved, protected, and motivated. Once he gave you a spot in his heart, it was forever. If he ever told you he loved you or cut for you, he meant it.

Ron was most proud to be a dad. All four of his children were his greatest joy. He was proud of each of their accomplishments, big and small. He was the king of photography and videography. He was that person to send you a multitude of pictures and videos of his children weekly and sometimes daily! Ron would go to the end of the earth for his children.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Peggy Thomas, grandmother, Rosie Taylor, and grandfathers; Lee Rowe Sr., Frank Thomas, and Benjamin Armstrong (bonus).

Ron leaves behind a legacy; his grandmother: Emma Rowe; his father, Jeffery Rowe; his sister; Bridney (Anthony), his children: LaRonda, Tiarra, Devi, and Jeremy; his grandchildren: Caleb, Chloe, Darius, Taj, Rai, and Koa; his nephew: Cedrick Jr., and niece: Kharmin. He also leaves to cherish a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, diehard friends, and extended families.

Your legacy will live on.
