

Effie Williams

September 17, 1944 - March 21, 2026

Sister Effie Williams was born to the late Y.L. and Lettlia Lavine Jacobs on September 17th, 1944, in Ville Platte, La.

She leaves to cherish her memories her Husband Malcolm (Uncle Com) Williams Sr. of Austin, Texas, 1 sister Mary Richard and husband Michael Richard of Lake Charles, La, 4 children: Catherine Williams and husband Anthony Brown, Debra Williams, and Milton James Williams and wife Amy Williams, and Patricia Williams, all of Austin, Texas. At last count, Effie has 14 grandchildren, 25 great- grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews along with other relatives, and extended family and friends who mourn her loss.

She was preceded in death by her parents Y.L. and Lettlia Jabobs, her son, Malcolm Williams Jr., her brothers Joseph and Burton Lavine, her sisters Essie J. Williams and Bonita "Connie" Jolivette.

On November 10, 1962, she was united in marriage to Malcolm Williams Sr., and to this union they were blessed with 5 children. Their love was one of devotion and strength. Together they built a life centered on family and faith. In 1991, Effie alongside her Husband moved to Austin, Texas, where she worked and continued caring for her family. During her time in Austin, she became a faithful member of St. Paul Baptist Church, where she remained active in her faith until her health began to decline. She was a loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She touched the lives of everyone who knew her with her kindness, warmth, and unwavering love. Her presence brought comfort and joy to her family and community, and she will be deeply missed.
