

Ella R. Harris Patterson

April 30, 1960 - March 25, 2026

Ella R. Harris Patterson was born on April 30, 1960, the daughter of the late Freddy Harris Sr. and Gracie M. Burns, both of Manor. Ella was not your typical child, she always moved to the beat of her own drum, and if you knew her, you know this to be true. In 1983, against all odds, after battling cancer, she gave birth to her only child, Tanisha Harris, whom she loved dearly. Shortly after, she met and married the love of her life, Larry Patterson, and they remained married until his homegoing. Ella lived a very eventful life and was a real firecracker; she could light up your day with a laugh like only she could. Ella had a heart of gold—but would fight you in a minute! Whether she made you mad or happy, she always left a lasting impression. Ella was a big sports fan, and no matter what, she loved them Cowboys! She also enjoyed wrestling, basketball, doing puzzles, and volunteering at food pantries in her free time. And please don't forget her 6:00 phone calls. But most of all, she loved her family and friends. She was a true fighter. She leaves to mourn her daughter, Tanisha Harris; special friend, Mr. Vincet Moore; great-uncle, Elbert Burns; three sisters, Mary, Ruby, and Lorine Harris; and seven grandchildren: Catrina LaShawn, LaShawna, Dejanay, Miachai, Maikayla, and Sirvonta. Along with six beautiful granddaughters and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ Dear Aunt Ella,

I want to say thank you so much for your presence on earth! You were an angel from GOD himself! I have a lifetime of memories we shared. From catching the city bus to your house when I got out of school when I was younger. Seeing you standing in that couldersack I would run full speed until I got to you and I'd hug you tight! The countless trips we would make to The Half Price Book Stores me, you and Uncle Larry. How we would stop at McDonald's get $13 worth of 75 cent cheeseburgers some drinks and we'd be on down the highway. Even when I got older no matter what I faced good times or bad times I always loved seeing you! We watched numerous Spurs and Cowboys games together! Until we meet again! I'm thankful GOD allowed us the time to have with you! Your Spirit always shines! Nothing could bring you down! Your heart was a big as the world! Anything that needed to be taking care you'd go over and beyond to get it done! Love like that leaves an imprint on a person's soul for life! Love from a Spirit Like yours Aunt Ella touched so Many Spirits! Love you Aunt ELLA!
