“ This has been incredibly hard for us, especially for Marvin; that was his little sister. When I first met Marvin, I gained a sister in Esther. Anyone who knew her and Pete knows they were inseparable—thick as thieves since grade school.

I have so many beautiful memories with her. I'll never forget about a year ago when we sat in the backyard, just the two of us, laughing and singing along to Sir Charles and Tina Turner. Lol We managed to get through five bottles of wine—I didn't even know you could get that drunk off wine! Lol But we had the best time.

And man, did she love her some Amir. He was her "Tinktink," and they would just sit and laugh together. Esther had the biggest heart and was loved by everyone she met. This loss is so hard to process. To everyone in Taylor, Texas, and everyone who knew her: please stand with us and keep E entire family in your prayers. You will be truly missed, E. 💔
