

Baby Eva Antoinette Thornton

February 3, 2017 - September 26, 2017

Eva Antoinette Thornton was born to Jasmine Van Yett and Mark Anthony Thornton on February 3, 2017.

She is preceded in death by her great great grandfather, Andrew Hardin; great grandfather Lee Hardin; great grandmothers, Connie Clemon and Corine Thorne and grandmother Carolyn Ann Thornton.

Eva was that bundle of joy and a blessing to Jasmine and Mark. As her parents, they loved Eva unconditionally. Eva means "Giver of Life" which was a precious gift to others after leaving her presence. Eva was special, precious, brave, funny, strong, feisty and vibrant with unwavering faith in God. Eva was in three different hospitals, day after day. She finally made up her mind that this was a place that she no longer wanted to stay. After speaking with the angels, and hearing their songs, Eva made up her mind; heaven is going to be my home.

Eva leaves to mourn her precious memories: her devoted and loving parents, Jasmine Van Yett and Mark Anthony Thornton of Austin, TX; brothers, DaVaugh Thornton, Brandon Thornton of Austin, TX; sister, McKenzie Thornton of Austin, TX; Grandparents, Dwight Steve Yett, and Bonnie Faye Hardin Yett of Austin, TX; grandfather, Charles Taylor of Shreveport, LA; god-grandparents; Minister Dennis Lee Brown and Marie Brown of Kyle, TX; aunts, Yolanda Thornton, of Dallas, TX, Brandy Taylor of Atlanta, GA, Charity Yett, Shante Raglin (Chester) of Austin, TX; god-aunt, Ms Caldwell of Kyle, TX; uncles, Dwight Steve Yett Jr. of Austin, TX; Cory Johanusburg Yett (Sharae) of Austin, TX, Michael Thornton of Shreveport, LA and a host of many relatives.
