“ Aunt Tweety... it just dosen't seem real that you are not here with us anymore. I keep asking myself when will I wake up from this nightmare. But the bible teaches us to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord and I know that you are walking around heaven with that beautiful smile. I am going to miss that big beautiful smile that brighten up the room everytime you walked in, your laugh with that snort, your walk that let everyone know you was the baddest lady in the world, your amazing personality that loved, cared and welcomed everyone in with no judgement, your dancing that was just so smooth and sexy, your clothes and hairstyles that only you could pull off and make it look so good. WAIT I can't forget about those fake tattoos that you would wear because your scared of needles. You were just so fearless and didn't care about what people said. You did you and you did it well. I will miss you on the Holidays, they won't never be the same but I know you will be there in the spirit. When you walked in the room the party begin. I also will truly miss the special times we had when we would go to church together and you would be so into the word and when we would go to the grave site and put flowers on mom/grandmother grave. You would always say THANK YOU to me and that you really appreciated me for picking you up. I could go on and on about all things I would miss about you. I will make sure that I take care of your sister/bestie. You were and still is an AMAZING daughter, niece, sister, mother, grandmother, aunt, great aunt, cousin and friend. I will never forget all the love you gave me since I was a baby, teenager and woman. You were the aunt that would party but also that aunt that did not play around. You were the aunt great that loved so hard on my girls. You respected and cared for them as if you were their grandmother. The girls and I love and miss you so much. I thank God for allowing us to have a moment with you. My Heavenly Angel (Aunt Tweety) rest in eternal peace. I will see you again in heaven. LOVE and MISS you deeply. Life will never be the same again. Love your niece Rochelle.

“ Your gonna be missed my dear friend tweety when I found out about your passing I got very sad because you were a very cherishing & good friend to me and can't believe you're gone but you're in a better place now. I remember when we used to work in the lab, us two didn't know lots so, when we both needed help we were able to assist each other In places we needed the help most. When residents would come to the lab you were always kind hearted to give out candy to those who would show up to use computers. She would always get updates on whats going on in city wide meetings & events. You are and will always be a caring person. I've known you for about 5 to 7 years now, it's very sad I couldn't have gotten to meet you even more. Your Friend,

“ You know, I kept going back and forth with myself about what I wanted to write. I really can't put into words what you meant to me, better yet everyone around you. I could probably write for hours so I will try to keep this short. I just want to say thank you. Thank you for showing me what it means to love and be yourself unapologetically. You were the one that got it right, not us. We have all been so caught up in what our idea of success is that we forget to live in the moment, and to thank God for what He has already done in our lives. You lived in the moment. You enjoyed the life that you were already blessed with. I'll never forget your infectious spirit. You had away with everyone, and we couldn't help but to smile or laugh when we were around you. Thank you for loving me and treating me as if we shared the same blood( it meant the world to me) Thank you Aunt Tweety for simply being you. I love you, and pray that you will rest in eternal peace.

“ My mother was an AMAZING woman.

When she entered a room she filled it with happiness and joy along with smiles that she bestowed upon each and every person that she would meet. She was loving, kind, smart, generous, intelligent, and caring. She was full of life! She would never make you cry or sad, she put a smile of everyone's face and brought laughter always.

She was genuine, opinionated, and when she smiled, her smile was as wide as a rainbow. Her laugh was contagious. Her love for God was admirable. Her love for me, her only child was beyond any amount of words could describe. She loved and adored her two grandchildren. She was full of love and full of life. She helped any one that she could. She was a special person in more ways than anyone can imagine. She loved her family and her friends.

I am and will always be filled with joy knowing that my mother put so much goodness in this world. Everyone who've met her or known her knew that she never had an frown upon her face she always smiled. When she would give you a hug, all of your fears and sadness would melt away.

She will truly be missed always. There was never a dull moment when she was around.

She will be greatly missed by myself, grandkids, family, friends and community. She had a heart of gold and a way with words. I will always continue to be honoured and proud that I was blessed to call her mama.

May she fly in the highest of the Heaven's sky!
