“ Lowanda Stoglin lit a candle in memory of Frankie Lee Nobles

“ Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still close and dear. Losing a loved one leaves a heartache no one can heal but their loving memory is a precious gift that no one can steal. I will cherish the hugs and your kindred spirit along with that look in your eyes each and every time I think of you. I am so blessed to have had you as my great uncle, with many blessings of all of my cousins that I will have to love which also have a piece of you in them. I am glad to be a Nobles and carry the last name proudly. I will miss you Uncle Butch. With love always from Tweety's child as you would call me little Tamika Nobles
