

Frankle Mae (Mae Mae) Favis

September 26, 1963 - June 22, 2016

On a quiet peaceful day in September God walked through his garden and plucked a flower.....September 26, 1963 Frankie Mae Favis was born unto Johnnie M. Cannon-Bunton and Algie R. Bunton, Sr.

She professed a hope in Christ at an early age under the guidance of Rev. J. Miles at Pilgrim Rest Primitive Baptist Church and later became a lifetime member of New Lincoln Missionary Baptist Church of Austin, Texas.

She attended Austin Area Schools and she loved working with the public and was a proud driver with Capital Metro for over 16 years. She also had a love for slot machines and Po'Keno Games.

Frankie is preceded in death by her father Algie R. Bunton, Sr., her son Walter K. Chargios, great nephew, Jermon M. Fowler and her long-term friend who helped care for her during both their illnesses "Antonett Thompson.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her mother, Johnnie M. Cannon-Bunton, the father of her children, Ronald Favis Sr., one daughter, Kathryn A. Wright (Elisha), two sons, Ronald Favis, Jr., and Crawford Favis (Brenda); eight grandchildren, Elisha Wright, Jr., Issac, Isaish & Armani Wright, Sivion Favis, Zion Favis, Ty'teanna and Tiarra Franklin. Five siblings, Linda Obanga, Brenda Bunton, Algie R. Bunton, Jr. (Cathy), Carl Bunton and Lisa Dikibo. A host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends; one god son, Kylieel Johnson and a best friends of 38 years, Geneva Mayberry.
