Gail Brandon was born on January 8, 1951, in Memphis, Tennessee. She was the eighth of ten children born to Noble and Freddie Gatlin. At an early age, Gail professed her hope in Christ and was baptized under the leadership of Reverend Suggs at Friendship Baptist Church, where her faith journey began and remained a guiding light throughout her life.

She graduated from Manassas High School in 1969 and went on to attend Bishop College, earning her degree in August 1973. Just two weeks later, on August 25, 1973, she married the love of her life, Lenon Brandon. Their union of 52 years was a beautiful example of devotion, partnership, and enduring love.

Gail lived a life rooted in faith, family, and community. She was known for her warm spirit, steady wisdom, and the way she made everyone feel welcome in her presence. Her home was a gathering place filled with love and laughter. Her advice was a gift freely given, and her love was constant and unconditional. She touched countless lives through her kindness, strength, and gentle grace.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her devoted husband of 52 years,

Lenon Brandon; her loving daughters, Tori Brandon and Tiona Brandon; her cherished grandchildren, T'Lexus Brandon, Kenya Edwards, Romello Edwards, Keyonna Edwards, and Ahmad Johnson; and 11 great grandchildren. She also leaves behind a host of close family members and dear friends who will forever hold her in their hearts.

“ We had so much fun in Tyler and here in Austin. Bringing the little ones with to play cards at Viv's or Shirley's or your house. The many birthday celebrations that we shared together. So many memories at SWBT, SBC and ATT. Let's not forget the track meets! You will be missed my sister! Love and prayers for the family!
