Gwendolyn Fay Williams was born on June 10, 1942 in Robert Lee, Texas to Jenell Moore Washington and raised by Henry Lee Washington (Pop).

Gwendolyn attended the public schools of Elgin ISD where she graduated from Washington High School.

She professed a hope in Christ at an early age at the Pleasant Bethany Baptist church in Elgin, Texas under the pastoral leadership of Reverend J. E. James.

She married her high school sweetheart, Edgar Williams of Elgin, Texas on February 2, 1962. God blessed them to be united in holy matrimony for 62 years. Later they moved to Austin, Texas where God continued to bless their family.

She took pride in working in her yard and loved all types of plants and flowers. She was a skilled Seamstress and enjoyed sewing for others in the community. She also had a passion for babies and young children. She established a home daycare where she nurtured and cared for many children in her family and the community.

Throughout her Christian journey she actively served in church, a choir member, an usher, women's Ministry, and deaconess ministry until she became ill and could no longer serve. She understood that her labor was not in vain.

She was an amazing and devoted Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Cousin, and Friend. She loved family gatherings on holidays and any other time the family came together. She will be missed but not forgotten.

She was preceded in death by her parents. She leaves to cherish her precious memories: Her husband: Edgar Williams, Three daughters: Acquenda Marie Williams, Valerie Yvette Harrison (Ken), and Andrea Lynee' Schexnayder. One Son: Pastor E. Shaun Williams (Lynnette). Two Brothers: Walter James Galloway (Venette) and Willie Tyrone Galloway, and One Sister: Sharon Kay Walker (Pastor M.C. Walker). Seven grandchildren: Porsha Williams, India Galloway, Tiffany Williams, Larry Middleton Jr., Gregory Schexnayder, Chandler Williams, and Kennedy Williams. Five Great Grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

“ Our dear neighbor, Sister Faye Williams, is missed. The beauty of her yard is often spoken of. But, Sister Faye was also an active disciple for Christ. She was so thoughtful of others and she and I would talk about me having three sons and a daughter (her Melodie!!); and she had three daughters and a son. During their years at David Chapel MBC, she would sometimes pick up Melodie on her way to teach her Sunday School class. She was indeed a beloved helper to this busy military mother and I was thankful. I am grateful to God that His Master Plan for my life included Sister Faye Williams. I was heartbroken to hear she transitioned. The Lord has added another beautiful flower to His eternal garden. Rest in peace, Sister Faye. Our heartfelt condolence to the Williams family. 🙏 ☐ + 🕊

“ Granny,

No amount of words can describe how much pain I'm feeling. You were truly beautiful inside and out. You touched so many peoples lives Granny. I'll miss being able to randomly come over and just cry in lap. You'd never asked what's wrong, you'd just would rub my back and say "You're gonna be ok Tiff". Thank you for all the life lessons and making sure your grands knew and Love the Lord. You'll forever be in hearts Granny and always on our minds. Gonna eat a midnight snack just for you tonight 😔.

You had the most beautiful yard in our neighborhood. I would turn on carsonhill and go down your street just to see your yard and what you had done new. We love Andrea and her kids like family , will watch out for her. I will miss you because I already did when I saw your yard and knew you were not there. So you rest until Jesus comes.
