Obituary

"A Tyler Rose"

Helen Virginia Choice was born March 28, 1942 to Jimmie B. Williams and Plez Choice and raised by Jimmie B. and Archie Williams. Helen was the second of siblings; six boys and four girls. Helen received her education in the Tyler Independent School District, graduating from Emmett J. Scott High School. After high school Helen married Harvey Jeffries and moved to Austin, Texas where she joined the St. James Baptist Church under the pastorage of the late Reverend E. M. Franklin. Helen was the loving mother of two daughters: Yolanda and Yvonda Jeffries. She also had two bonus daughters: Kitambra Jeffries and Sheila Trahan, and three bonus sons: Eric Jeffries, Kedrick Jeffries, and Michael Knight.

Helen was no stranger to work and was employed for years by the Safe Way Stores, Inc., at one time the largest grocery store chain in the U.S., as a manager in the delicatessen and later worked for MHMR. Helen never met a stranger and was always willing to show love to all. Helen's life was personified by her favorite quote: "Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breaths away." --Maya Angelou. Her favorite song, "Heaven is a Beautiful Place." She always enjoyed singing and socializing with friends and family, and she will forever be remembered for her love of service to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, style of dressing, Hats & Fedora's.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents, Jimmie B. and Archie Williams, Plez Choice, sister Violet Webster, baby sister Missionary Brenda Roberts, brothers Richard Choice and Archie Williams.

Helen leaves to cherish her memory: daughters Yolanda and Yvonda, bonus daughters and bonus sons, granddaughters Nakeisha Rodrigues and Helena Wise, grandsons Nathan Weyand and Chalmer Jones, great grandchildren Brooklynn Wise, Aaron Wise, and Emmanuel Rodrigues and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, other family, and friends.

May the love and profound legacy of Mrs. Jeffries rest upon her Blessed children and family richly. St. James MBC family continues to surround the Jeffries family in Prayer now and in the future. Rest, God's beloved, Helen Jeffries, rest. Claudia C.

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-2
