“ I remember Henry from childhood. My grandparents lived next door to his family. My brothers, sister and I played with he and his siblings when visited our grandparents. He was always fun and easy going. I hadn't seen him in years, but often thought about his family. May he rest in peace and I am praying for the family in their time of need.

“ My uncle has always been a cool layer-back representation of strength to me. I had the opportunity to take a pic with him we recently took before his passing and it will remain one of my favorite pics.

“ Our favorite memory of Junior was when he was our ring bearer 54 years ago. He was a perfect little 5 year old, who took his job quite seriously. He made us all very proud, just as he did caring for his mom and dad. We will miss our cousin who left us way too soon. May God give the family strength. Know that we love you and pray for you daily.
