“ I met Horace and Rebecca and family when Horace was stationed in England at RAF (USAF) Chicksands. - in the 1970s. Horace was Public Health Sergeant and I was a local Public Health Inspector and we first met (silly as it sounds) over a carpet beetle in one of the houses on the base. We became good friends and over the next few years my late wife, Joan, and I shared many happy hours with Horace and his family. It was they who first introduced me to barbecues! Since that time I've visited and stayed at the Dixon household in Texas on a number of occasions - and Horace and members of his family came all the way over to England to join with us at my daughter's wedding in 1996. To Rebecca and all the members of the family I offer my sincere condolences - and very happy memories of a good man and a life well lived.

“ To Rebecca and family and the rest of Horace’s family, I extend my sincere condolences to all of you during your bereavement. I know your lives will not be the same without Horace but knowing what a strong family you are, you will find comfort in each other and get through this together. After learning of Horace’s transition, I found myself, off and on, for several days reminiscing about the enjoyable times I had with Horace growing up in St John. We played sandlot football, little league baseball and, of course, basketball on the natural ground on his family’s property at the upper end of Delmar Avenue. To us, we felt playing on the natural ground was just as good as playing on the parquet floor at the Boston Garden. Horace and I met while attending Fiskville Grade School and remained friends to the end.

“ My condolences to the Dixon family, Mr Dixon will be missed by all that knew him. First of all I know he was a child of God, husband, father, grandfather, a provider for his family and friend to all. So let not your heart be trouble believe God believe also in me. For in my father has there are mansions. Well Mr Dixon has gone to his mansion in Heaven, where the streets are paved with gold. One thing do know we will see again.
