Mrs. Flowers was an amazing woman and like a grandmother to my children. Always willing to lend a helping hand, loving and lots of wisdom to share. I met her while staying in Coronado Hills and words could never express the love we had for her. To the family you have my condolences and will keep y'all in prayer

“ I met Ms.Flowers in Coronado Hills where my family member live. I would speak to her and laugh and talk on dome ocassions. She was old school in some of her actions. She was a sweet lady that loved her grandbabies dearly. I know she will be missed. God be with you Sherry and siblings.

“ I will fondly remember Ms. Irene Flowers. She was no nonsense, but one of the sweetest Woman of God you would ever meet. I will truly miss her, especially at times when I visit St. Paul M.B. Church.

Shirley, you and your Family are in my Prayers!

“ Sis. Flowers was an awesome woman. She and I worshipped together at St. Paul. I always said she was old school because she would discipline the kids and if the parents didn't like it she would get on them as well. Wasn't nobody gonna be playing, be out of order or eating in God's house on her watch. Through out the years she taught me a lot of things ,especially in the kitchen and I appreciate it all.

Sis. Flowers I will miss you.

Till we meet again
