His employment included working at the University of Texas at Austin as a baker, Steck Vaughn as a stocker and served as a school crossing guard for Austin Independent School District. He retired in September of 2021.

Isaiah Sauls was called into the Gospel Ministry on June the 26, 1971, at the

New Covenant Church, in Austin, Texas. He was associated with this Ministry until August 5, 1992. He later established the house of Light Ministries Church near his home, in Austin, Texas. He was Pastor there until his health failed.
