and loved is.

James Etta was a very hard working woman who during her time in Hattie worked for the Hattie Independent Schools as head of custodial services, and upon moving to Dallas gained employment with the Teller Independent Schools District until retirement. After upon returning to Dallas she became a part of the Beautiful Gate Baptist Church with Pastor Greg.

On October 28, 2020 after having "fought the good fight" James Etta had this old world farewell and joined that great cloud of witnesses that compass the saints here on earth.

James Etta was preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, son Michael Douglas Chase, sisters Thelma Sampson, Dorothy Sampson, Della Sampson, Jewel Sampson, Barbara Sampson.

Thank you for being the Mother and Father of our hearts, it will always live on!
